Odessa Falls In Red Sweep

LONDON, April 10 (AP)—Odessa, greatest port on the Black sea and first major prize of Hitler's invasion of Russia, has fallen to the striding Red army rapidly planting its banners along the Russian frontiers, Berlin announced today.

RUSSIA—German forces have evacuated the important Black Sea port of Odessa in the face of overwhelming Red attacks... meanwhile other Russian forces are re-opening their drive in the Crimea to blast that pocket of German resistance by storming at Perekop.

Yanks Smash Nazi Air Plants

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR

LONDON, April 10 (AP)—U. S. air task forces totaling 1000 to 1500 bombers and fighters smashed at plant factories and airfields in Belgium and France today in the third straight day of fierce bleeding blows against Nazi air power.

The Americans struck after heavy RAF night raids on rail targets at Lille and in southern outskirts at Paris.

Today the heavy bombers hopped across the North sea to smack the Evers and Virorde plane repair works and Melshook air-drome, near Brussels; aircraft factories at Bourges about 115 miles south of Paris and military objectives in the Pas-de-Calais area of France and elsewhere.

The fleet took off soon after RAF heavy bombers returned from raiding Villeneuve-St. Georges, a junction on the main rail lines from southern and western France 12 miles south of the center of Paris, and Lille, important junction on French rail lines.

Mosquito bombers hit Mannheim and other unspecified objectives, and extensive mine-laying operations were carried out at long range, all at a night cost of 11 planes, the air ministry said.

Many bomber crews back from today's attacks reported they encountered no fighter opposition and that flak was light, even over targets.

One group back from Belgium reported "token" attacks by groups of a half-dozen Focke-Wulf 190's attacking head-on, and an even smaller number of Messerschmitt 109's striking simultaneously from the rear.

Tokyo Says Puppet Bose Reaches India

NEW YORK, April 10 (INS)—The Tokyo radio, stepping up its "pre-Indian propaganda," today relayed "rumors" that the Japanese-sponsored puppet leader Subhas Chandra Bose has arrived in India to stimulate revolt among the inhabitants of Assam.

Germans Renew Cassino Shelling

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, April 10 (AP)—New Zealand troops have inflicted casualties on the Germans at Sant' Angelo, three miles south of Cassino, headquarters announced today, while Allied troops in Cassino were subjected to renewed violent shelling.

The shelling of Cassino followed days of comparative quiet in the devastated town.

The Germans, meanwhile, seemed to be on the move in the lower Garigliano sector of the main front. In the Ausente Valley 21 tanks or self-propelled guns were seen 2½ miles northeast of Minturno.

The Germans, who can control the volume of the Garigliano river's flow by manipulating the dam flood gates on the Liri river, have permitted the water to drop five feet.

Giraud Defies De Gaulle Order

ALGIERS, April 10 (AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle was confronted with a direct challenge to his authority as president of the French Committee of National Liberation today as Gen. Henri Giraud stood firm on his refusal to accept dismissal as commander-in-chief of the French armed forces.

Giraud's stand apparently left the next move squarely up to De Gaulle, but there was no indication of the latter's probable course of action. The situation was further confused by the assertion of some of Giraud's followers that several members of the Liberation Committee had threatened to resign in an expression of sympathy with him.

The Giraudists declared that among these committee members

Evacuation of the port and naval base was acknowledged by the German command, which declared the Russians were striking out in an apparent full-blown offensive to clear the Crimea.

The communique broadcast from Berlin said heavy fighting was in progress on a broad front from the Sivash to the Perekop sectors on the Crimea isthmus and the Russians were penetrating the garrison lines.

Cut off from all but sea communications, in the same way the Odessa force was almost isolated, it seemed the Germans and Rumanians in the Crimea might be forced to yield the last of the strong Black sea outposts guarding the Rumanian sea flank.

WRECK INSTALLATIONS

The evacuate of Odessa—carried out, the Germans said, after long-planned destruction of military installations—was a sensational step in the Germans' last-mile march out of southern Russia.

Odessa, only a little more than 30 miles inside the 1933 Russian border, was captured by the Germans 2½ years ago after a two-month defense by besieged soldiers, workers and marines who made their stand amidst the rubble and lagoons. Its prewar population of Odessa was 600,000.

It was the first of the dramatic sieges of Russian cities—Sevastopol, Leningrad and Stalingrad. It had been expected the Germans would make a similar stand there.

But the swift Russian advance struck down southwest of the city almost slicing it off, and the Germans—by their own account—had no stomach for such a siege as the Russians endured.

REDS OVERRUN RUMANIA

Moscow declared one Red army column had smashed to a railway station three miles north of Odessa yesterday and that another, sweeping 11 miles southwest of the port, had seized Marienau, only five miles from the Odessa-Ovidopol railway, the only retreat road for the thousands of Nazis and Rumanians defending the city.

The Russian were only eight miles from Ovidopol itself, a bottleneck ferry terminus on this railway, and their guns commanded both the rail stretch and vulnerable ferry point.

Liberation of the strategic city came as other Soviet forces invading Rumania overran 200 more villages, and virtually isolated the railroad offasi.

Recent estimates placed the number of German and Rumanians in Odessa at 100,000 to 200,000.

Japs Press In on Imphal

By CHARLES A. GRMICH

NEW DELHI, April 10 (AP)—Jap besiegers of the plain of Imphal have sent small parties west of Bishnupur, 18½ miles southwest of Imphal on the Tiddim road, where they have been in contact with Allied forces and suffered casualties, the Southeast Assam command announced today.

This was the first time the Japs had been reported west of the Tiddim-Imphal road. (It indicated a Japanese effort to sweep around the Imphal defenses from the southwest).

British forces stoutly defending Kohima, northern Imphal plain strongpoint, have wiped out Jap groups which penetrated the town's tight ring of defenses, killing at least 50 and taking others prisoners, the communique said.

JAPS SAY IMPHAL TO FALL

(The Berlin radio today quoted a Jap government spokesman as saying in a Tokyo dispatch the fall of Imphal is a matter only of days. The broadcast said the spokesman declared the Jap occupation of Kohima April 6 "must be regarded as the introduction to further advances.")

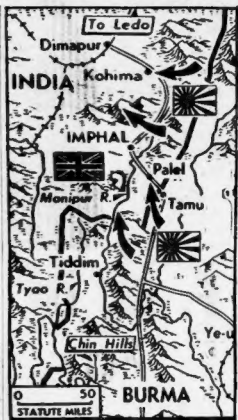

Undeterred by losses, Jap invaders continued their pressure in the whole Kohima area. Along the road from Tiddim to the south of Imphal the Japs increased pressure and were in contact with Allied defenders.

Fighting also was reported in the foothills north of the plain where losses were inflicted on the enemy.

FIGHT ON ARAKAN FRONT

Kohima is a key defense point 35 miles southeast of the Bengal-Assam railroad which supplies American and Chinese forces fighting in North Burma under Gen. Stilwell. It is 30 miles inside India and 60 miles north of Imphal, major Allied base in northeast India. Fifteen miles of the Kohima-Imphal road has been blocked by Jap infiltration parties.

Fighting also broke out on the Arakan front to the south, where the Japs made local unsuccessful counter attacks on both sides of the Mayu range which cost them considerable casualties. The communique said West African troops inflicted heavy casualties on the enemy east of Kalandan village.

The Chinese 22nd Division pressing down the Mogaung valley maintained contact with the Japs, while in the drive on Myitkyna, principal Jap base in North Burma, Allied troops still were fighting the Japs near the Tiang river on the Sumprabum-Myitkyna road.

Throughout the entire Burma area Allied aviation continued to attack Jap positions.

Tokyo Radio Warns U. S. Stiffens Drive

By RICHARD C. BERGHOLZ

Steady Allied successes in the sea and air marked action on the Pacific war scene today.

Declaring the speed of the American advance in the Pacific has "become rapid by contrast with the Solomons operations," the Tokyo domestic radio warned the Japanese people the war "is about to enter a real stage."

The broadcast said the American offensive has changed in character from island hopping to "leapfrogging."

In the Southwest Pacific, American airmen spoiled enemy hopes of reviving battered base at Hollandia, New Guinea, by spreading 152 tons of bombs over the area Saturday. Other flares dumped 234 tons of bombs over installations at Wewak, New Guinea; Rebalu, New Britain, and Kavieng, New Ireland.

In the Central Pacific, Admiral Nimitz's forces followed up the heaviest night air attack of the war on Truk Thursday night by a new raid by Liberator bombers Friday night, the 16th smash at the Jap East Carolines base in 11 days.

Significantly, Nimitz's communique described the raids as "operations to soften up Truk," an expression frequently connoting impending invasion.

Other planes ripped at Oroluk, Ponape and Ujelang in the Carolines and four enemy-held atolls in the Marshalls.

U. S. 14th Air Force Mitchells in a Saturday night raid on Yulikan damaged a 1000-ton freighter, left several smaller vessels burning and destroyed two Jap interceptors, Chungking announced.

Charge Raid During Pope's Easter Mass

LONDON, April 10 (AP)—The Berlin radio declared today that Allied planes had bombed Rome yesterday just as Pope Pius XII was celebrating Easter mass in the hall of the consistory.

Fall River Girl Held in Kidnap

FALL RIVER, April 10—Drawn and pale, 18-year-old Arlene M. Underwood of Globe st., answered "not guilty" today in a weak and trembling voice when arraigned on a charge of kidnaping little Jimmy Chace

Alice Chace of William st. A few moments later, after she had been held in $3000 for a hearing Thursday, the accused girl wept and dabbed at her eyes with a tiny handkerchief as her father, Lee A. Underwood, moved over in district court to sit beside her.

While arrangements were being made for bail, father and daughter held low and earnest conversation between her spells of sobbing. Judge Benjamin Cook continued the case for hearing after Probation Officer William Lyons stated that before Arlene left Fall River she had had difficulty at home and had been living here in Dwelly st.

After the session, Sgt.-Detective Ralph S. Crutcher and Detective Thomas J. Connelly said they were leaving late today with little Jimmy's mother for New York to pick him up at the Foundling Hospital, East 68th st.

The youngster, missing since January, was found wandering in a New York subway a few days after being taken from Fall River.

Miss Underwood, according to Detective-Capt. Raymond Murphy, credited with solving the mystery of the disappearance and finding Arlene, said she confessed taking the boy and abandoning him in New York when she could not find work there.

She also told police, he stated, that she was to be married today at the Brockton city clerk's office to John Verdone of Grove st., Brockton, at whose parents' home she lived for a time after returning from New York.

CLEAR UP MYSTERY

The history of the strange case and the manner in which it was finally cleared up was revealed by Capt. Murphy:

"Early last January, Arlene, giving her name as 'Jean,' went to Mrs. Chace's home in Fall River, telling her she had learned from one of Mrs. Chace's friends what a sweet little fellow Jimmy was," the detective said. "She proposed to help out Mrs. Chace, who had little time to care for Jimmy because of her work as a clerk in a Fall River drug store. 'Jean' said she knew a naval officer's wife in Providence who'd be happy to take care of the child."

"Mrs. Chace, after several talks with 'Jean,' finally consented," Capt. Murphy related. "That was on last Jan. 6. Four days later, it now develops, the boy was found in a New York subway. He was the grinning lad pictured in the newspapers wearing a cop's hat and playing with handkerchiefs. A few days later, according to Arlene's story, she returned home and told Mrs. Chace that Jimmy was being cared for. Then Arlene dropped out of sight."

MOTHER STARTS SEARCH

"Meanwhile, Mrs. Chace began a private search for her son. Frankly, she made trips to Providence and New Bedford, and finally, on March 31, she told us the story."

"When Arlene, who had been living in Brockton, was questioned by police there in connection with some silverware missing from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mather, of Emmett st., where she was employed to tend children, Brockton police, learning she was from Fall River, notified us. We recognized her from their description as the long-sought 'Jean.'"

"She admitted taking the baby, explaining she did it 'because I like all babies,' and confessed she had abandoned Jimmy in New York."

Fall River Boy Found in New York; Girl, 18, Held

ARLENE M. UNDERWOOD, 18
Charged With Kidnaping Boy

Mother Held In Girl Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10 (INS)—Dist. Atty. Edmund Brown announced he had completed the murder case against Mrs. Louise Flack, 30, whose 7-year-old daughter, Delores, was found dead in a San Francisco basement apartment.

The woman was interviewed at Gardner, Kan., by Asst. Dist. Atty. Harold McGuire, who returned with Mrs. Flack's alleged confession. She will be brought to San Francisco by a policeman.

The reputed confession said Mrs. Flack attended a two-day Christmas party, leaving Delores alone in the apartment, and came back to find the child lying dead in her crib. For two months she continued to live in the apartment while the mummifying body of her daughter lay in a locked room.

F. D. in South For Vacation

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—President Roosevelt has gone South for a vacation and rest which will last about two weeks.

The trip was announced today by the White House. The time of the President's departure from Washington and the place he has gone were not disclosed.

The White House statement said:

"The President has left Washington for the South and will be away approximately two weeks unless some unexpected emergency arises which would compel him to return at an earlier date."

"The President was accompanied by Adm. William D. Leahy, his personal chief of staff; Vice-Adm. Ross T. McIntire, surgeon-general of the Navy and physician to the President; Rear Adm. Wilson Brown, naval aide, and Maj.-Gen. Edwin M. Watson, military aide and secretary."

"Except for the work that is always carried on between the White House and the President regardless of his whereabouts or the distance he may be from Washington, he will devote himself exclusively to relaxation outdoors, in fresh air and sunshine."

"Correspondents for the Associated Press, the United Press Association, and the International News Service regularly assigned to cover the President also have left Washington. For reasons of security, however, the news reports of these correspondents will not be published until the President has returned to Washington."

The statement was given out by Stephen Early, White House secretary. Early was asked whether the last paragraph meant that the reporters have gone with the President or to the same place the President has gone. He replied the statement speaks for itself.

The President has been urged for several weeks by his physician, Adm. McIntire, to get away from his office and to concentrate on recovering from the lingering effects of a cold and bronchitis.

El Cars Collide, 9 In Hospital

Nine persons were under treatment at City Hospital today for injuries received in a rear-end street car crash on Blue Hill ave., Mattapan, between Goodale rd. and Woolson st. More than 20 others received a severe shaking up in the collision.

Police quoted Kenneth Taverner, of Morton ter., as saying he was forced to jam on his brakes suddenly to avoid an auto which cut in front of him.

The second trolley, operated by Edmund P. Zalubias, 25, of White st., Belmont, rammed the first. Many windows were shattered and both cars were badly damaged.

Most seriously hurt of the passengers were Mrs. Vivian Kravitz, 22, of McLellan st., Dorchester, and Mrs. Rose Edell, 60, of Kingsdale st., Mattapan.

Fall Into Shaft Injures Fire Aide

John F. McDonald, 57, of Eutaw st., East Boston, aide to Deputy Fire Chief John F. McDonough, was seriously injured early today in a two-story fall through an old shaft while he and the chief were inspecting the ruins of a tenement house in Cazanova st., South End, which had been swept by a two-alarm blaze.

Another fireman was injured and three occupants of the five-story building overcame by smoke during the fire, which caused $3500 damage. Overcome were Robert Bonny, 66; Alec Meurant, 13 and Manuel Sylva, 47. Fireman Frank J. Mahar, 47, of More st., Dorchester, was cut by flying glass. All were removed to the hospital.

shaky that the municipal government may not be able to provide jobs for returning war veterans unless it is given funds from outside sources.

The special session of the Legislature was scheduled to reconvene this afternoon, following the Easter recess, and a bill calling for a $300 bonus payment to the state's veterans of the present war is due for a test vote.

POLITICAL PATRONAGE

Top-heavy and inefficient municipal government, political patronage and constantly declining tax revenues were blamed by the finance commission, in its report to the Legislature for a looming financial crisis here.

Boston was described as the "least enviable" of the country's major cities as far as tax rates and valuations are concerned. Urging a survey of city departments with economic reforms in view, the commission warned that the time is "long past since the city could afford the luxury of its present organization."

Unwise spending, the report said, "might speed the day when the city has exceeded the limit of the taxpayers' ability to pay." The expense of aerial highways, bridges and similar post-war improvements should be shared by other communities in the Metropolitan area, the commission advised.

HIGHEST TAX RATE

The report stated that Boston has the highest tax rate in the country, among the larger cities; municipal costs are still rising, despite a decreased demand for welfare assistance; assessed water rates are too high and have resulted in a surplus of $1,110,823.26 in the past year, which has been improperly applied to other municipal costs; real estate valuations are still too high, despite the falling tax revenue, and result in too many court appeals; foreclosures of real estate have increased the number of parcels of unused property in city's hands to 3,758 during the past year, with a valuation of $6,569,624 and a subsequent loss of tax revenue to the city.

On the bright side of the ledger, the commission found that the municipal debt has been steadily reduced; the volume of tax collections was the highest in six years, and the percentage of tax liens collected the highest since 1929.

Damon Runyon Goes Into N. Y. Hospital

NEW YORK, April 10 (INS)—Damon Runyon, columnist and short story writer, was disclosed today to be at Memorial Hospital, New York, for a checkup.

Soldier Son, Dad Admitted to Bar

A Brookline father and his soldier son stood side by side before Justice Charles H. Donahue in Supreme Court today and were sworn in as members of the Massachusetts bar.

John M. Shadrawy, 49, Tappan st., Brookline, and his son, Sgt. Bernard F. Shadrawy, 26, were among 72 persons, including 15 women, admitted to practice.

The elder Shadrawy, a World War I veteran and an examiner for the state insurance department, attended night classes with his son at Northeastern University, and both received their law degrees in 1941.

Another serviceman who took the oath was Petty Officer Alfred Falkland of the Coast Guard, formerly a Brookline patrolman.

Also sworn in were Rep. Enrico Cappucci of East Boston and John A. Long, son of Boston Park Comm. William P. Long.

Justice Donahue urged the new lawyers "to interest yourselves in seeing that better laws are made."

Huge Loss in Spoiled Meat Revealed Here

Because consumers are not receiving sufficient ration points, amounts of decomposed meat far in excess of normal and "to a much greater extent than during the first World War" have been found in possession of dealers.

Herman C. Lythgoe, food and drug director of the Massachusetts Health Dept., declared today at St. Louis.

Director Lythgoe, president of the Ass'n of Food and Drug Officials of the U. S., stated at that organization's annual conference that the "question of price alone was involved 27 years ago," while dealers today "object to disposing of bad meat when it involves a loss of ration points."

"Consumers are not receiving a sufficient number of points to buy all the meat being allocated to meat dealers," he asserted.

The Massachusetts official made the startling revelation that during 1943 alone, Massachusetts state food inspectors seized a total of 30,863 pounds of decomposed meat in various types of establishments.

Of this total, 17,096 pounds were found in cold storage warehouses, 9275 pounds in markets, 4085 pounds in food factories and 407 pounds in restaurants.

These confiscations resulted in 83 prosecutions, of which 77 resulted in convictions.

Director Lythgoe, who has held that post here since 1915 said that the greatest outlet for decomposed meat is in hamburger steak, lamb patties, sausages, frankfurters and bologna.

At tomorrow's session of the St. Louis conference, Dr. George L. Drury, veterinary inspector of the Massachusetts food and drug division, will take part in a symposium on slaughtering laws and inspection and will present a historical summary of such laws in this state.

Fix Skulls Like Broken Windows

WASHINGTON, April 10—Army neurosurgeons at Walter Reed Hospital have taken a tip from the Glazier and developed a new technique for fixing skull fractures caused by battle wounds or violent accidents.

They are replacing extensive areas of shattered skull bone with tantalum metal plates that are "inlaid" on chiseled-out edges of uninjured bone and fastened with tiny triangular metal wedges—just as a new pane of glass is inserted in a window frame.

The technique was demonstrated to military surgeons generally for the first time recently during a three-hour operation performed on a soldier whose skull was shattered in combat on New Georgia Island last summer.

Jimmy Roosevelt Heads for Capital

BURBANK, Cal., April 10 (AP)—Lieut.-Col. James Roosevelt, USMC, eldest son of the President, left for Washington, D. C., on an American Air Lines plane after an Easter week-end visit with his wife in Los Angeles.

The visitor, wearing two rows of campaign ribbons for his action in the Pacific, told reporters he expects to remain in Washington only briefly before assignment to another war theater.

Gentile, Chief Ace, To Get High Reward

LONDON, April 10 (INS)—Capt. Don Gentile of Piqua, O., leading ace of the Army Air Force, will receive official recognition tomorrow for his record-breaking destruction of 30 German planes, headquarters revealed today.

Capt. Gentile will be awarded one of the highest American military decorations at a ceremony slated to be held at his fighter command base.

The medal will be bestowed by one of the most eminent figures in the European theater of operations, whose name has not yet been disclosed.

Home Town Asks F. D. To Let Gentile Return

PIQUA, O., April 10 (INS)—Piqua's city commission today asked President Roosevelt if Capt. Don S. Gentile, the 23-year-old lad who broke Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker's record of 26 enemy aircraft by destroying 30 Nazi planes, might not be returned to America for "a much needed rest."

The commission in a telegram to the President expressed the hope War Department regulations would permit return on furlough of the Piqua boy, a combat pilot with the famous Eighth American Air Force group.

Picks Queen

LONDON, April 10 (AP)—Gilber Tomes, former BBC engineer, has devised an apparatus which makes it possible to pick the queen bee out of a swarm of 50,000 bees with great ease. The device it was explained, picks up a "ray sent out by a speck of radio-active material dabbed on the queen bee's back."

The engineer didn't say whether he had invented a device to hold the queen bee while the speck is being dabbed on.

Fall River Men Waive Deferment, Are Inducted

Although at least half of them were eligible for deferment under Saturday's directive covering men 26 or older in essential jobs, not one of 35 men reporting for active service today at Fall River's draft board, No. 61, asked to be kept at home.

The intact contingent was sent to Ft. Devens.

A draft board member said: "They had settled their affairs in business and at home. They had sold their automobiles. They had been given farewell parties during the week. So they went through with it and waived deferment, despite the directive."

Only three boards in the State had men report for active duty today, Chicopee and Holyoke, as well as Fall River.

All the Chicopee men were sent to Ft. Devens, but in Holyoke the local board proceeded according to the authority given it in the deferment directive.

Men 26 and older who had essential jobs were sent home and told to await further notice.

This was the first day the draft boards were able to function under the new directive. Many of them were just receiving notice of the order by telegram from Col. Ralph M. Smith, state selective service director.

At Ft. Devens, the Army said it was accepting all men reporting for active duty, whether they were qualified for draft board deferment or not.

"It's up to the boards," an Army spokesman stated.

Naval officers said the effect of the directive would not be noticeable to them for several days but they were taking all men sent to the federal building by the local draft boards.

State Senator MacDonald Dies

SPRINGFIELD, April 10—Stricken with a heart attack while en route to the special legislative session at Boston, Sen. Donald A. MacDonald of West Springfield, died today as his train arrived at Springfield.

Bataan Kin Find New Hope in Club

By PAULINE WARREN

To the nation, Bataan Day will always be remembered as a dark page in American history, but to some 500 persons who attended the first meeting of the Prisoners-of-War-Next-of-Kin Club at the State House, and 150,000 at the city's observance on Boston Common, Bataan Day is more than that—it is an unhealed wound.

On the Common this was made impressively clear by Lieut. Leona Gastinger, Army nurse and one of the last to be evacuated from Corregidor. The great throng cheered as she told them, "Some day we hope to return to the Philippines."

The spirit of her words was exemplified in the mood of the crowd and its ovation to the parade of the armed forces before speeches of tribute on MacArthur mall.

It was reflected also by those who assembled in the Hall of Flags at the State House.

For these were the wives, the mothers and fathers, the brothers and sisters of the American heroes captured by the Japs in the Philippines when all their ammunition was gone.

Their eyes haunted by two years of uncertainty and heart-break, these relatives met as a group for the first time—in the hope that by getting together they might help each other.

TERRIBLE HUNGER

Theirs is a hunger terrible to behold—a suffering all the more acute for its helplessness.

For more than two years all they have had from their loved ones in Japanese prison camps are small gray cards containing a few non-committal sentences. But even as unrevealing as this trickle of news might be, it is all that is left to these people of the proud boys who fought so hard to the last ditch.

It was probably the saddest meeting the State House has witnessed. As mother met mother the greeting was always the same: "What prison camp is your boy in?"

Then, when occasionally, some discovered their boy were in the same camp—they would look at each other with great hope and exclaim:

"When did you last hear from your son and what did he say?"

SOME GOT NONE

There were others there who have never even been granted the bounty of a small gray card—in two years all they have had is word their son was taken prisoner in the fall of Bataan or Corregidor. These listened hungrily while others described having received a card "just six months ago"—hope would break through the despair in their eyes as they shook their heads wistfully and murmured:

"Perhaps we'll hear something soon . . . perhaps we'll hear tomorrow."

Mothers in wheel chairs, fathers walking with canes, wives with small children—all of them came from all over Massachusetts: Lawrence, Haverhill, Lowell, Springfield. There were even a few from far-away towns in Connecticut, New Hampshire and Rhode Island—all of them hoping this club may help them in getting news of their boys.

Heads lifted when the organizer of the club greeted them with:

"It is appropriate that you should get together on this day—for it is the day of Resurrection—a day of hope."

JUST A BEGINNING

"We who have worked to bring you together hope to help you and wish you to know this is just a beginning—a first meeting."

They wept when she said: "We know your heartaches—your worries—your fears. By bringing you together we feel more can be accomplished . . . One mother grieving alone feels helpless—but five hundred mothers, banded together, form a powerful voice."

"Don't wait for introductions to each other," she counseled. "Speak to each other freely—this is the most exclusive club in the world—there is no one here who has not some relative in a Japanese camp. Therefore you belong together—help each other."

She then explained the plan for getting the club started had first been initiated by these newspapers—the Boston Record-American-Sunday Advertiser.

"But now," she said, "these newspapers are turning the club over to you so that you may run it any way you wish. Elect your own officers in your own way and come to us only if you need help."

"Work hard and make your efforts felt so that it may hasten the day on which your boys can come home."

"KNOWS HOW YOU FEEL"

Then she introduced Mrs. John S. Parker, head of the War Relatives Ass'n for the Y. M. C. A., "because she is, like many of you, a mother with a son in a prison camp. So when you discuss your heartaches with her, she knows exactly how you feel."

Mrs. Parker was too choked with emotion to make a long speech but she greeted the relatives and urged them to apply to her for help whenever they wished. She was followed by Miss Jessie Goldsmith of the Red Cross who told the next-of-kin that every effort possible was made in getting packages to prisoners and who ended her brief greetings with the words: "The Red Cross is at his side wherever he may be, but the Red Cross wishes to be at your side, too, and help you."

"What prison camp is your boy in?"

BOSTON GREETINGS

Acting Mayor John Kerrigan brought greetings to the group from the city of Boston, and Alexander McElwain, a former prisoner of war, gave them courage by stating the undefeated attitude and fortitude of the average American soldier as he had noted it while imprisoned.

"These boys are brave—they'll hang on—they'll be home some day—don't lose heart," he said. Mr. C. Wilson Anderson, head of the Home Department of the Red Cross which handles all inquiries regarding prisoners of war, also gave brief greetings, stressing that everything the Red Cross could do to forward Japs to let packages through for American prisoners is being done, but that so far Japan has remained uncooperative.

When the meeting was over the club members reviewed the Bataan Day parade from the State House steps.

After the parade was over they marched down to the Common in a body, following the Governor's representative, Col. Daniel Tyler, Jr., and sat in a special roped-off section just before the speakers' stand and listened to the Bataan Day exercises.

A poignant scene took place before they parted for the day. When the exercises were over they clustered around Lieut. Leona Gastinger, the nurse from Bataan who had been the key speaker.

"REMEMBER HIM?"

Some took out snapshots and begged: "Do you remember this face? Did you see him anywhere in Manila or before you left Bataan?"

Others clamored: "Do you remember Pvt. So and Such—he's tall and blond . . ."

This went on and on . . . and this time it was the observers and the supposedly imperturbable police officers on duty who wept unashamed . . . like babies.

Stassen Faces Nebraska Test

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—Backers of Lieut.-Comdr. Harold E. Stassen will risk some of their candidate's Wisconsin-acquired prestige tomorrow in a Nebraska primary which Senator Butler (R.) of Nebraska predicted would find the former Minnesota Governor the winner of a popularity contest but without the support of most of the State's 15 Republican delegates.

Stassen, who demonstrated he must be considered in the GOP presidential picture by annexing four of 24 Wisconsin votes, will be the only active candidate in Nebraska's preferential primary. The name of Wendell L. Willkie remains on the ballot despite his withdrawal from the contest.

Some line on the vote-getting abilities of Gen. MacArthur, who won three delegates in Wisconsin, may be afforded by an Illinois preferential primary tomorrow. MacArthur is pitted against Riley Bender, Chicago Attorney.

Gov. Dewey to Run If 'Drafted' by GOP

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

NEW YORK, April 10 (INS)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, will accept the Republican nomination for President if it is tendered him by the GOP convention in June, it was learned today from his friends.

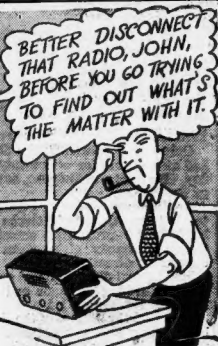

It can be stated authoritatively that Gov. Dewey regards it as his duty to the Republican party and to the United States to accept the high honor of running for the presidency, if it is tendered him. And today, it seems he will be nominated by the Republicans on the first ballot.

Dewey feels it is his duty to accept the nomination, if the convention chooses him as the best Republican to defeat President Roosevelt, because he believes another term for President Roosevelt will completely destroy the traditional American system of government by law and not by man.

This decision by Dewey in no wise conflicts with his public declarations that he is not a candidate for the nomination. Dewey will steadfastly continue on his present course of service as governor of New York without lifting a finger toward obtaining the nomination. There will never be a word from him that can be interpreted as seeking the nomination.

Dewey is fully conscious of the grave responsibilities attached to the presidency in the next four years. He is fully aware too that he may be nominated but not elected.

JUNEAU, Alaska, April 10 (AP)—Republican delegates from Alaska to the national convention will support Gov. Dewey of New York on the first ballot whether or not he is a candidate, said Chairman Elton Engstrom of the Alaska Republican central committee today after a poll of committee members.

Navy Praises Hero of Fire

Midshipman Richard A. Marshall, USNR, 19, of Hesper ave., Saugus, who sacrificed his life after volunteering to fight a fire which threatened the entire business section of Hyannis last Dec. 11, today was commended by the Navy.

Marshall, a student at the Massachusetts Maritime Academy, offered to help combat the spread of flames, and was handling a hose line in the basement of a burning building, when overcome by intense heat and suffocating smoke.

Three other New Englanders honored by the Navy were: Lieut. John D. Garland, USN, 43, of Washington st., Somerville; James R. Peckham, coxswain, USNR, of Thames st., Newport, R. I., missing in action, awarded the Navy and Marine Corps Medal; and Victor Plucy, shipfitter 1st class, of Hancock st., Northampton.

Q—Can a soldier who has seen service outside the United States and was discharged because he was over 38 apply for mustering-out pay? E. C., Charlestown.

A—Yes, although a soldier who serves only in the United States and requests his discharge is not entitled to mustering-out pay. The overseas discharged soldier, however, will receive $300.

Q—I am a discharged soldier who is receiving retirement pay. Am I allowed to apply for mustering-out benefits? A. McD., Cambridge.

A—Sorry, but you are not entitled to discharge pay.

Q—Since I joined the WAC the conditions at home have changed so now my mother has no income. Am I eligible to make an allotment to her? Corp. L. B., Boston.

A—Yes, You should send her a certificate of dependency to fill out, sign and return to you. This certificate should be submitted to your Personnel Officer with application for family allowance and allotment.

Q—I am the wife of a discharged wounded soldier who was hospitalized upon discharge. Am I eligible to receive government compensation? L. K., Lynn.

A—No, but your husband is eligible to file a claim with the Veterans Administration.

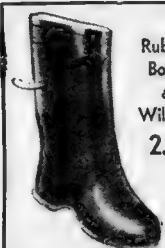

Q—How do I go about changing the beneficiaries under National Service Life Insurance? A. S., Malden.

A—You may do same by writing to Veterans Administration, Wash. 25, D. C., or apply to the Veterans Bureau, 6th Floor, Federal Building, Boston. They will give you necessary applications to file.

(All questions submitted to the Veterans' Friend, Record-American, will be answered in this column unless personal answer is requested, in such case a self-addressed stamped envelope is required.)

Swedes Intern 10 U.S. Bomb Crews

STOCKHOLM, April 10 (INS)—Crews of 10 American bombers were interned today in Sweden after their planes landed on this nation's soil yesterday.

As far as could be learned, none of the fliers was injured and all of the planes were described as "practically undamaged." It is believed they were en route back to Britain following their daylight assaults on the German-Polish border area when they were forced down.

An eleventh plane, however, landed in the sea off the Swedish coast, but disappeared before rescue craft arrived. So far, no trace of its crew has been found.

Red No Match

LONDON, April 10 (AP)—The orators' corner in Hyde Park, where Britons often gather to hear soapbox speeches, was crowded as usual yesterday, but only a handful of persons were listening to the man on the platform behind a card which proclaimed: "Revolutionary Communist Party." A GI softball game nearby was the big attraction. "This modified baseball game drew quite a crowd of London's Easter strollers," observed the Daily Sketch, which published a five-column picture of the incident.

Weymouth Youth Walkie-Talkie Ace

By Marine Staff Correspondent. CAPE GLOUCESTER, New Britain, March 31 (delayed)—Radio stations in search of announcers who can handle rapid-fire events in calm fashion had better contact after the war—Marine Corp. Donald P. Dudley, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Dudley of Mill st., South Weymouth, Mass. During the 23-day battle of Cape Gloucester, Corp. Dudley operated a walkie-talkie to maintain communications for his outfit commander through a half dozen engagements and in the thick of the fighting.

The walkie-talkies are portable miniature radios, known as "Spam cans" when unattached, as "fish-poles" when attached to a popo stick. Don was around "announcing" in the captures of Target Hill, Hill 160 and Hill 660. Following 23 days on the lines, he volunteered and participated in a 28-day 100-mile sweep of the jungle hinterland with a Marine combat patrol.

A graduate of Weymouth High '39, he worked in the Bethlehem Shipyard at Quincy before joining the Marines.

Coast Guard Revue To Play Philadelphia

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 10 (AP)—The Coast Guard's all-service variety revue, "Tars and Spars," will have its eastern premiere at the Earl Theater in Philadelphia April 21 and will play there for a week. The revue, now playing in Miami, will open here Thursday for a week and will then leave for Philadelphia. The cast of 55 includes Victor Mature, former film star, and is made up entirely of Coast Guard personnel, of whom 28 are SPARS.

Snowslide Buries 3 Autos in Rockies

GEORGETOWN, Colo., April 10 (AP)—Reports from the shelter house at the summit of Berthoud pass early today indicated all persons trapped when at least three cars were buried by a snowslide last night had been rescued. They were being taken to the shelter house to wait until snowplows clear the road. Reports were none was seriously injured.

THE BIG ADVANTAGE in smoking PHILIP MORRIS

They're proved less irritating to the nose and throat... and every puff is finer-tasting!

HERE'S why you'll find—in PHILIP MORRIS—a lot more smoking-enjoyment.

First, in laboratory research, PHILIP MORRIS were proved definitely and measurably less irritating.

But that's not all! In addition, the findings of a group of distinguished doctors prove that:

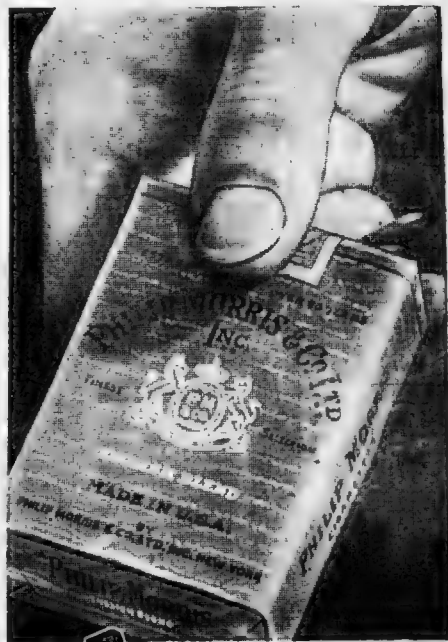

WHEN SMOKERS CHANGED TO PHILIP MORRIS, SUBSTANTIALLY EVERY CASE OF IRRITATION OF THE NOSE OR THROAT—DUE TO SMOKING—CLEARED UP COMPLETELY OR DEFINITELY IMPROVED!

Full reports of these findings appeared in leading medical journals.

No curative effects are claimed for PHILIP MORRIS.

BUT—this impartial evidence proves them to be far less irritating—safer—for the nose and throat!

Smart Set Shuns Avenue Parade

By BETTY ALDEN

THERE'S NO USE saying socialites went Easter Parading because they didn't. The carriage trade has long since given up the pleasant custom of strolling up the avenue to exchange friendly greetings with neighbors after church and nowadays the only place to see notables in their Easter finery is at the entrance to fashionable churches where pews are reserved for parishioners with cards of admission.

Mrs. Richard Sears and her daughter, Mrs. Harold Field Kellogg, were an attractive pair of worshippers at Arlington St. Church. Both wore gardenias on their fur jackets and Mary Elizabeth's bonnet was a traditional Easter confection of pink roses with a brilliant green mesh snood encasing her long blonde hair. At the same church Mrs. Robert Saltonstall (Nancy Ayer) attended with her blonde little daughter whose hat and tresses were given a final motherly adjustment as they entered. Mrs. Saltonstall was dressed in modish navy with white accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Harris Nelson and daughter Sylvia, Mrs. Joseph Huggins with her sister, Lee Stowell Cullen, both in navy and white, Mrs. Homer Albers in lime green wool and a mink coat, and Mrs. Daniel deMenocal were among the fashionables at Emmanuel. Joan Ryerson Brewster and her husband, Lieut. George W. W., were quickly spied by photographers as they entered Trinity, the former in a powder blue and tan checked suit with jaunty felt sailor of the same colors and a corsage of yellow orchids.

MEMBERS of the 1920 Sewing Circle will make a day of it tomorrow. These attractive matrons, mothers of debutantes and some grandmothers, who came out 24 years ago, will get together for lunch and then attend the N. E. Antiques Exposition at the Copley Place where one of their group, Mrs. Richard Wood, is in charge of the Caledonian Market's attractive booth.

In addition to Mrs. Wood the 1920 "debs" include Mrs. Augustus F. Doty, Mrs. Robert Goodie, Mrs. Charles Higginson, Mrs. Roger Converse, Mrs. Thomas Woods, Mrs. Cabot Lovering, Mrs. Brooks Stevens, Mrs. Palfrey Perkins, Mrs. Roger Perry, Mrs. Robert Almy, Mrs. John Worcester, Mrs. Mariand Hobbs and Mrs. Robert P. Adams.

ORGANIZED DURING the first World War in response to the need for more women in agriculture, the N. E. Farm and Garden Ass'n is more active than ever. They meet Thursday at the College Club.

Tips to Gardeners On Preparing Soil

By FOSTER H. WEISS

Head of Vegetable Garden Dept., Norfolk County Agricultural School, and Director of the Boston Record-American Sunday Advertiser Demonstration Garden on Boston Garden.

With the time at hand in some sections for the start of outdoor garden activity, soil preparation today is an important topic. In that respect, I should like to discuss a few mistakes I observed last year.

If you are fortunate enough to be able to have the land plowed, be sure that you contact your man and have him do the job on time. On the other hand, do not let him plow if the ground is wet.

Another point to keep in mind is that if manure is used it should be spread on the land and plowed under. There is no value in trying to work it down by harrowing or raking after the garden has been plowed or spaded. Spread the manure evenly if you expect uniform growth.

Phosphate applied broadcast on top of the manure and spaded in at the same time will balance the manure from a plant food standpoint. It should be applied at the rate of 30 or 40 pounds per 1000 square feet.

If you have seeds left over from last year they can be used and will give good results if they were stored properly. Farnips are an exception. This seed only retains its vitality for one year and should never be used.

In planting old seed, it may be well to suggest that you plant it a little thicker to insure a good stand of plants.

This is especially true with the smaller seeds such as carrot, lettuce and spinach.

Soon after the first small seeds are planted the soil will come in as to why they do not come up. There are about three reasons why small seeds do not germinate well in the spring:

1—It is planted too deep. 2—It is planted too thin. 3—The soil is not firmed after the seed is planted.

Small seeds must not be covered too deeply if you expect to get an even stand of plants. The best way to mark rows for small seeds is with the end of a rake handle. These seeds, if planted one-half inch deep, will come up better.

Covetous Russia

THE SOVIET RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT, accusing Chinese military forces of "violating" the Mongolian People's Republic, threatens military action to "correct" the situation.

Is Russia planning to expand her borders to the East, in the same fashion she is expanding to the West?

If so, the pattern is familiar.

Needing an "incident" to excuse an aggression, has Russia created one?

Captain John H. Craig, noted military commentator, has observed regarding Russia's aggression:

"This bears the all too familiar stamp of the ancient process by which powerful imperialistic nations prepare a background of legalistic justification for campaigns to gobble valuable bits of the territory of weaker neighbors."

"The rabbit bites the lion, or in this case the bear, and the bigger beast is obliged to defend himself."

It is interesting to note that the Mongolian People's Republic, to which Moscow reports have referred as "Soviet-controlled," is a region over which complete Chinese sovereignty is claimed.

How can China be reasonably accused of "violating" its own territory?

Moreover, it is of greater significance to note that the Chinese Province of Sinkiang, against which Russian military action is threatened, is one of the greatest and richest undeveloped sources of oil and minerals in the world.

Russian territorial ambitions in Asia are apparently on as grand a scale as her territorial ambitions in Europe, and her pattern of aggression is the same.

What a farce it is to pretend that the ambitious and powerful Russian nation is engaged in an enterprise of ultimate "world peace and justice."

What hope of "peace and justice" is there for the little nations in Europe, or even for a big nation like China, if their rich and legitimate possessions and territories are to be gobbled up by Russia at her own pleasure and for her own aggrandizement and enrichment?

The American people, unfamiliar with these remote places and events, may think they have no concern in them.

But our New Deal "globalonies" and "globalunatics" in Washington are talking about policing the world with American forces after this war.

Does that look like an enterprise in support of peace and justice, in the light of Russia's covetous policies?

The American people will do well to take a careful look at these global matters before it is too late.

The American people will do particularly well to take a careful look at their own New Deal world-planners before THAT is too late.

Don't Desert the Soldiers

REPRESENTATIVE NEVILLE, Democratic leader of the lower branch of the Massachusetts Legislature, is quoted in the press as saying that pending legislation to permit service men of 18, 19, and 20 years of age to vote seems certain of defeat.

Mr. Neville's statement will not improve the morale of thousands of young Massachusetts men who demand the right to participate in the democracy they are defending at the risk of their lives.

Nor will it endear the law-makers on Beacon Hill to the fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters and friends of the heroic teen-age fighters.

Instead of conceding defeat so easily, why don't Mr. Neville and the party he represents come out courageously and patriotically and say: "A MAN OLD ENOUGH TO DIE FOR HIS COUNTRY IS OLD ENOUGH TO HAVE A VOICE IN THE RUNNING OF HIS COUNTRY?"

Can it be that the Democrats are afraid the service men will vote Republican or that the Republicans are afraid the service men will vote Democratic?

Let both parties be done with selfishness and hypocrisy and come out openly in favor of all the men who are defending the Stars and Stripes.

Let the question of enfranchising the disenfranchised young service men be voted on in BOTH THE HOUSE AND SENATE.

Let every member of both bodies STAND UP AND BE COUNTED.

Let Governor Saltonstall STATE HIS OPINION.

The disposition to ignore the 18-to-21 group of the armed forces is a DISCREDIT TO THE LEGISLATURE and a continuous SOURCE OF EMBARRASSMENT to all the people of this Commonwealth.

Nobody is fooled by the political schemers who are attempting to kill the teen-age vote bills in committees.

Nobody is deluded by the deceptive statements that a constitutional amendment is required.

If such an amendment is required, WHY DOESN'T THE LEGISLATURE START WORK ON IT?

Both the Democrats and Republicans are free to act according to their own judgment in disposing of the teen-age vote matter.

But neither the Democrats nor the Republicans should forget for one moment that the relatives and friends of teen-age service men will also be free to act according to their own judgment when they vote next November.

Yes, I'm in love, I feel it now
And Celin has undone me.
'Tis not her face that love creates;
'Tis not her shape, for there the fates
Have rather been unkind.
Her voice, her touch, might Give the alarm.
'Tis both, perhaps, or neither;
In short 'tis that provoking charm
Of Celin altogether.

THE poet seems to have been in a frame of mind similar to the man who wrote:
"It's not because your hair is curly, not because your eyes are blue, it's just because it's you, Dear, just you." Men with this viewpoint on romance, make excellent husbands, according to our Mules & Men Department, but are very hard to find, except in Baltimore, Brooklyn, Butte, Mont., and Seattle, Wash. . . . "Have you listed your faults as a husband?" is a query noted in one of those "Are You a Good Husband?" questionnaires. I never had, so I listed my faults as a husband and found I had 175, including the fault of asking my wife, "What did you say?" about 30 times a day when I should have heard her the first time.

SAYS HE: The performance of my favorite red-haired dramatic film star, Greer Garson, in "Madame Curie," did not impress me, but I thought it was probably because I expected too much. However, I see that Elspeth Grant, brilliant British film critic, says: "Madame Curie is a long, earnest and beautifully made film which quite failed to move me. Miss Greer Garson, in the title role, looks all too like that ravishingly lovely film star, Miss Greer Garson, and all too little like a woman who worked for years in conditions of great hardship and poverty to present radium to the world. Miss Garson seems too conscious of herself."

ASIDES: The Danish Who's Who will not be published this year because the Danes would not comply with the German demand that the names of Jews be omitted. . . . Hitler is very much afraid of a revolt of his military men. Der Fuehrer also fears some officer or soldier may take a shot at him. Only Generals Keitel, Rommel and Dietl are admitted to see Hitler without being previously searched. . . . Just saw an actress who looks 20 years younger than she is. Would tell you who she is, but how can you say a woman looks 20 years younger, reveal her name and still try to call yourself a gentleman? I only mentioned it to assure feminine subscribers it can be done.

PLEASE NOTE: Twenty-five per cent of the Luftwaffe is operating against Britain. Twenty per cent is occupied in Southern Europe. Twenty-five per cent is kept busy over Central Europe. Only 30 per cent of the German air force is active against Russia. That is to say, 70 per cent of the Nazi air force is compelled to remain on other fronts than the Russian front, and yet the Soviet still complain there is "no second front." No justice in that. Efforts to minimize the aid being given Russia by the United Nations should be strongly opposed.

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL: It is a criminal offense to leave children alone and uncared for in England. A London woman, who recently left her three young children alone in the house overnight, was sentenced to 28 days in jail. Perhaps some similar legislation in this country might bring a decrease in the many fatal accidents resulting from children being left without parental or other supervision. . . . Am informed one New York hairdresser charges patrons $48 an hour and has more customers than he can handle. . . . Anthony Eden, British Foreign Minister, hasn't bought a new suit since the war started. His sermyn St. London, tailor, is the authority for this statement. Mr. Eden pays the equivalent of $100 for a suit of clothes. Tailoring is not to cut clothes to fit the figure, but to improve the figure by the cut of the clothes.

QUERIES FROM CLIENTS: Q—How about Virgo women? Are you going to continue to ignore us? What do the star gazers say? A—It is said Virgo women are "companion types and not emotional sweethearts." They are very conscientious and always do more than is expected. If the instructions say the hair should be brushed 100 times nightly, Virgo women brush it 200 times. Instead of doing the ordered daily dozen of an exercise they do it 24 times. They are very difficult to fool in matters of business but easily deceived in affairs of the heart. Greta Garbo, Claudette Colbert and Joan Blondell are Virgo women. . . . Q—The highest price I paid for ordinary gasoline was 28½ cents a gallon in Carson City, Nev. in 1927. What is your record? A—In 1920 I paid 36 cents a gallon, not including tax, in Nyack, N. Y. . . . Q—Did you claim that in 1938 the police of Brooklyn were ordered to guard a Japanese freighter that was loading scrap iron? A—Yes, sir. That was in January, 1938. The newspaper account said, in part: "The Japanese freighter Margara Maru is guarded by police at pier 16, Brooklyn, where she is loading scrap metal to be converted into munitions."

BRIEFLY: Under the registration for employment order, 1,543,146 British women between the ages of 45 and 50, inclusive, were recently registered. This means they will have to go to work in some activity connected with the war effort, whether they like it or not. . . . How long will Presidents of the United States continue to be chosen by the Electoral College method, that pal of the country's cradle days? By the Electoral College system 12 States could elect a man President even if the other 36 States all voted against him.

FAILURE: OUR BITTER CAMPAIGN No. 14, designed to facilitate getting a plain ham sandwich when you ask for one, is not a success. A plain ham sandwich is one with just bread, butter and ham and no pickles, dressing, lettuce, mustard or potato chips. Only plain ham sandwich enthusiasts know the difficulties that arise in this connection. Our suggestion is that a plain ham sandwich be nationally referred to as "Sandwich No. 711" so when a man asked for it his desire would be unmistakable.

Hollywood Today

By Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, April 10—The famous John B. Anthony ("Mr. Anthony, What Shall I Do?") is being paged by Producer Max Alexander at PRC to come to Hollywood for the Judge Role in "I Accuse My Parents."

In addition to the emoting stint, Anthony is also being offered the job of technical adviser. Heaven knows, he is a man who knows his woes. All the ails of the world have been poured into his ear by the radio, so he should be able to solve a little parent trouble.

Arthur Caesar authored the original, which is plenty heavy drama. If Anthony accepts, he will bring his radio show to Hollywood while the picture is being made, which is a thoughtful touch. It would give plenty of people in Hollywood a chance to air their wails and woes, and can we do it in Hollywood? Even Mr. Anthony would be surprised!

WALTER SZROVY, who is best known in this country as the husband of Rise Stevens, won't be much longer, he don't mean he won't be her husband, because they are expecting the stork in June. But he will be standing on his own merits as a screen actor. Over the weekend he was assigned to a top role in "To Have and Have Not," the Humphrey Bogart movie at Warners, playing the part of Dolores Moran's husband. In Europe Szrovy was very well known. He was a Reinhardt player and also starred in UFA films. He came to this country to marry Rise, the songbird, and never went back. About two months ago he was discharged from the American Army.

ONE OFFER made to Hal Wallis that hasn't been publicized is that which comes from England. Arthur Rank, England's top movie man, has offered him a job that includes managing all the Rank productions. That would mean, of course, that he would have to leave this country, and I doubt very much whether he would want to make such a change. However, it is one of the many he is considering. The reason there will be a fight over Warner's declaration that he broke his contract is because he has a percentage in all the pictures made by him, and that is a considerable item. "Casablanca" alone has already made over $5,000,000.

JUST BEFORE Louis B. Mayer took the train for New York he made Mike Todd very happy by changing the name of the M-G-M movie, "Mexican Holiday." Says Mike: "Another company has a movie, 'Mexican Fiesta.' They are all too similar to 'Mexican Hydrize.' No one thought of the word Mexican in a title until I produced my musical." Mike has turned down $350,000 for the rights and is still holding out for $500,000. "Why, I was offered $100,000 by a small independent company for the rights to 'Pick-Up Girl' before the play was even produced," he said. "How about the similarity of that name to 'Pin-Up Girl'?" I asked. "Oh, that's entirely different," he said, "even the inference."

JUST THE DAY before Joan Blondell signed her contract to play Aunt Sissy in "A Tree

VIRGINIA MAPLES Gets Gift from George Raft

Grows In Brooklyn' she took her two children, Norman and Ellen, to the beach and got a terrific sunburn. I talked with her Friday and she was applying every known remedy to her face to try get it in shape before she starts at 20th. Joan said her suit for divorce against Dick Powell will be filed this week. I understand she will ask for custody of the children, although that is only hearsay. Dick is still living in the house, but there is no chance of a reconciliation.

FOR THE FIRST TIME since Red Skelton joined M-G-M, he telephoned the studio. The occasion for his breaking his rule was his hurried plan to wed Muriel Morris. It had to be something important because Red is allergic to telephones and always refuses to use one. He called on the lady at 4 and at 5 was at the City Clerk's office to get a marriage license—only he couldn't get one until he and his bride presented a health certificate. Red didn't know about such things. He did know that when Muriel was in Mexico City he took out a lot of girls and she went out with a lot of different men, but when she came home she was the one—so he decided to make it marriage.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD COLLECTED AT RANDOM: Lita Grey Chaplin and her husband, Arthur Day, have adopted a baby girl; Van Johnson couldn't be happier now he has met Estie Davis; Ken Dolan and Shirley Ross, who can not live with, or without, each other, at Slapsy Maxie's to hear Joe E. Lewis; Cook's night out in one of our better cafes looked just like New Year's eve; the Jack Warners had a party with Lord and Lady Stanley (Sylvia Fairbanks), Lindo and Cole Porter, Lorelle Hearst, Errol Flynn and the Charles Feldmans. Joan Bennett and Walter Wanger sat at a nearby table and Joanie sweats Stephanie, nine months old, has taken a step. The Sam Goldwyns were with the Lewis Milestones. Charlie Chaplin and Oona had many visitors to their table congratulating Charlie on his victory. George Murphy sat by his lonesome. So did Monty Woolley. Henry Joe Brown was with Kay Hurrell and a whole table of 20th Century-Fox biggies were on hand; Gloria Vanderbilt is in town and Lieut. Pat De Cicco, flown out in a bomber, has joined her. Pat will soon get well in our California sunshine; Margo is wearing a big diamond ring, once the property of the Maharajah of Indore. She isn't saying where she got it; Bob Cummings graduated his sixth class of combat fliers at Oxnard; George Raft is back and he brought the girl friend, Virginia Maples, a hand-hammered silver ring that had been made by German prisoners; Kay Francis was bridesmaid for Mitzl Mayfair when Mitzl married Charles Henderson. That's all today. See you tomorrow!

My Day

By Eleanor Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Sunday—This is Easter Sunday and the touch of spring I was looking for has really begun to appear in Washington.

This is the season when we are reminded that faith and hope are a part of our religion.

The other day, some ministers of the church asked me, and I guess themselves, what leadership the church could or should take in the postwar period. How could or should it be defined, where should it begin, where should it end?

It is probably not possible for anyone to answer these questions, but on this Easter day, in hundreds of churches, people will think of the resurrection.

IT WAS A DAY in the dim past when, to some people, the hopes for the present and future had seemed to die, and then suddenly came to life again, to live eternally in the hearts of men who believe in the story of Christ as a symbol of what all of us must go through and can go through and still come out triumphant.

Men on the field of battle and men and women at home are going through daily crucifixion, and only faith and hope can make their victory sure.

Easter is a soul-searching time this year, for just as the apostles who met Christ walking on the road were somewhat frightened, so each one of us, meeting our test of Easter faith and hope, will be somewhat frightened at the responsibility it entails. God grant us all the courage and constancy of faith to see us through this period of our history.

"I was thinking..."

by IZZY ORT

My mind is not on me business at this minute so I will not start off with the usual bang-bang-bang about the grille. My daughter Muriel is home on a short visit and we're trying to catch up and have fun with Mummy. Muriel is a WAC, and very happy and proud to be a member of it. And by the way keep buying war stamps and bonds, nuttin' better I can assure you, do that first and if you have anything left, then visit my grille where one is always sure of a pleasant afternoon or evening. Do music in the grille starts at noon and continues until closing time.

The upstairs El Tropic room which is plenty classy opens at 6 P. M. and has floor shows which run thru the evening and also has two or three bands to play for those who want to dance. Yupp, good shows and good music if you like to dance. The folks who appear here are Boston's most popular and offer a variety of things which I think you'll like, if you don't, come next week and I'm sure you'll get what you like. Anyway what does it matter, there is a war to win and lets think of that first and always, so again please buy bonds and stamps before you visit me. •Drt's Grill and El Tropic, 25 Essex St., Boston, Mass. Can Any Normal Woman Use a Tampon?

There is no reason why a normal, healthy woman, whether she be married or unmarried, should not use a properly designed tampon.

Today, fortunately, most women can say goodbye to old-fashioned methods of sanitary protection and find new peace of mind with DALE.

DALE is the newest, most modern method of protection—the only tampon with the patented Lubricated Tip.

As you use DALE that new tip melts into a smooth lubricant that enables DALE to glide gently into place. Without applicator!

And DALE's Tapered Shape makes it easy to place for lasting comfort. New Safety Base gives greater security. More cotton, for extra protection. Ask for DALE at all leading drug counters.

U. S., State Aides Join Paper Drive

Federal and state employees in Boston were challenged today to match or better the record set by city employees last week when they collected 6670 pounds of paper during a one-day salvage drive.

City Salvage Director George G. Hyland, voicing the opinion that old public files contain reams of paper in the form of old records, filing cards, pamphlets, books, catalogs and similar items, designated Wednesday as State House paper salvage day and Friday as Federal paper salvage day.

Later in the month, offices of private firms will be cleaned out of old paper during an intensive collection campaign staged by the Advertising Club of Boston.

A special appeal to Boston residents to give more of the high-quality office paper to the salvage campaign was sounded by Col. W. J. Calvert, commanding officer of the Boston Quartermaster Depot.

Flier Killed As Sister Weds

Only a few hours after he telephoned his sister from Kansas to extend best wishes and explain he wouldn't be able to attend her wedding, Army Air Force Sgt. Albert S. Dold of Rosindale was killed in an airplane crash in Tennessee.

This was disclosed today after receipt of a telegram notifying his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dold of Sheldon St., Rosindale, of his death. Sgt. Dold was one of nine Army airmen killed when their bomber, en route from Tampa, Kan., to Florida, crashed near Nashville.

His sister, Miss Dolly Dold, 19, was married Saturday night in the German Lutheran Church, Rosindale, to Seaman Malcolm P. Gill, USNR, and the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to New York, just before word of the death was announced.

Sluggers Who Held Up Newton Man Hunted

A trio of holdup men were sought by police today, after Edward T. Durkin, 41, of Channing St., Newton, complained he had been slugged and robbed on Harvard ave., Alston.

Durkin said the three men took his wrist watch and wallet containing $40, after beating him and knocking him down.

Hull Urges Unity On Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—A broadcast explanation of American foreign policy coupled with a plea for home front unity on international issues launched Secretary of State Hull today on a planned campaign to keep the principles of the nation's foreign policy out of election year controversies.

"We are moving closer and closer to the hour of decision" in which the United Nations will determine whether the world will be ravaged by war again in 25 years, Hull said, "and disunity in this country can render it ineffective in carrying out its responsibility."

The key to Hull's plans for keeping foreign policy decisions out of politics apparently lies in his announced intention to work with a bipartisan committee of Congress in shaping plans.

He announced last night detailed summation of foreign policy developments that he had requested Chairman Connally (D.) of Texas of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to designate the bipartisan group to work with him on planning positive world organization, and said similar arrangement would be made with the House.

Immediate problems leading to victory.

FRANCE—Hull said the United States would not recognize the French Committee of National Liberation as the government of France because it "is, of course, not the government of France."

ITALY—The United States is hopeful that there may be early reorganization of the Italian government to include representatives of the so-called six anti-Fascist political parties because the present conferences of those parties in Italy hold a "promise of success."

NEUTRALS—Hull laid down the principle that "we can no longer acquiesce in these nations' drawing upon the resources of the Allied world when they at the same time contribute to the death of troops whose sacrifices contribute to their salvation as well as ours." His remarks were interpreted to apply alike to Sweden, Ireland, Spain and Portugal, and Turkey.

No-Point Meals

By MARTHA LEE

THIS WEEK, from April 10-15, has been proclaimed "No-Point, Low-Point Week" in New England. It is part of the nationwide "Food Fights for Freedom" campaign of the War Food Administration.

There is a long list of these unrationed and low-point foods. Let us consider a few of them and some ways they can be used for wartime meals:

Fresh fruits and vegetables
Cereals
Peanuts
Soybeans and Soy products
Fresh fish
Eggs, poultry
Milk, cheese
Variety meats
Pork

Cereals rate a top place on the list for breakfast planning. Top place nutritionally, too, for a bowl of cereal with milk and sugar provides protein; the B vitamins, thiamine, riboflavin, niacin; the minerals, calcium and iron; and energy value. Here is a way to give cereal the centerpiece setting it deserves for other meals:

EGGS GOLDENROD ON SHREDDED WHEAT BISCUITS

Salt and pepper
8 tbsp. butter or margarine
4 tbsp. flour 2 cups milk
4 tbsp. ketchup Parsley
6 hard-cooked eggs
To 6 shredded wheat biscuits
Melt butter; blend in flour and ketchup. Gradually add milk; cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cut eggs in halves lengthwise. Remove yolks. Cut egg whites in slivers, add to sauce. Season with salt and pepper. Heat shredded wheat biscuits about 10 minutes in a moderate oven (350 deg. F.). Arrange shredded wheat biscuits on serving platter; cover with egg whites in sauce and sprinkle with steamed egg yolks which have been pressed through a sieve. Garnish with parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

More and more people are beginning to realize the potentialities of peanuts as an integral part of the diet. They are one of the best sources of high quality protein—as a matter of fact, pound for pound, they contain more protein than beef. Peanuts are versatile, too, and can be used for any course at luncheon or dinner from nourishing soups to delicious desserts.

PEANUT LOAF

3 cups rice or mashed potato
1 cup finely ground roasted peanuts
1/2 cup milk
3 eggs, well beaten
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. chopped onion

Combine ingredients in the order given. Pour into an oiled loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven for 20 to 30 minutes. Try serving it with your favorite tomato sauce.

BROILED CHICKEN

Clean and wash fowl, and leave whole or cut in pieces, place in large kettle, add boiling water to half cover, and simmer, covered, for 2 to 3 hours, or until tender, adding 1/2 teaspoon salt per pound after first hour of cooking. Serve with chicken gravy made from stock or with dumplings, or use in recipes calling for cooked chicken. Allow 1/2 to 3/4 pound per portion.

Beauty

TO KEEP YOUR HAIR your crowning glory . . . naturally highlighted and free from faded or streaked discoloration . . . there is a splendid rinse . . . in fourteen shades . . . to intensify the true shade and beauty of every woman's locks. If you don't want your hair to date your age . . . keep your tresses bright and lustrous with a harmless rinse . . . that will give a uniformity of color to your head. RKO Starlet Lenore Aubert's dark tresses . . . so even in color and lustre . . . brighten the youthful beauty of her charming face.

Hopes He'll Return

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX—I'm 26 years old and have a daughter 7 years old. I was married at 18. We never did get along from the start, but I think it was because neither of us tried. Well, I left him about a year ago, because I'd heard he was running around with women.

I lived with my mother for several months. At first I wouldn't even see him, but I did allow him to see the child. Then I decided it might be best to talk to him about making another start. He said he'd think it over, so we went out together and tried to be nice and I made an effort to please him. When I asked him about it, he said he thought it best we keep apart.

So then I took an apartment for myself and child, and he gave me a certain amount weekly which is enough to support us. When he feels like coming over he does, but I'd like him to come back to stay—X. L. L.

If you make things pleasant when he's around, and don't make it too obvious that you're trying to get him back, you may have better luck. And don't, I beg of you, overlook that tried and true road to a man's heart—the cook-stove. Do you know how to make attractive little dishes? If not, invest in a cook-book, and don't blow hot and cold, the way you've been doing.

Waist-Skirt Trend Gains

By BETTINA BEDWELL

WHAT has been last year as a trickle in the styles is a flood this spring, and there's no stopping this tide. I'm talking about the waist-and-skirt fashion.

Naturally, every dress has a waist and a skirt, but that isn't what's meant at all. What is making this stir in the styles is the separate waist and its equally separate skirt companion. Waists are practically the stars in the spring style show. Skirts go right along with them.

The sample of this fashion sketched is from Warner Bros. designing studio, being a fuchsia red crepe waist with big, shiny buttons, bishop sleeves and a band neckline, worn with a skirt of clear vivid green wool. Colorful waist and skirt combinations are part of the fashion for these separates. The skirt has a draped front, a high top and ties at the waistline.

Hair Rinse in 14 Shades

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE

IT WAS ONE THING to be able to tuck away from sight those greying locks which aged our heads . . . when side rolls and pompadour puffs and frontal frou frou were hair high-style. But with the flat-top and close-to-the-head arrangement the seasonal craze . . . and it promises to grow in popularity with the passing of the weeks . . . every strand of grey and faded hair is exposed to critical inspection.

And, if the truth be known . . . not many of us can stand such daylight scrutiny of such age-dating tresses . . . for the intermingling of naturally-colored hair with streaked and faded and graying locks . . . gives a silvery cast to the head . . . and an over-thirty-five look to our countenance.

Many of us hesitate about dyeing our tresses . . . perhaps we don't dare or don't care . . . but a youthful head of hair is still a cherished and coveted prize for any woman. And, so the next best thing . . . is to resort to an effective beauty trick . . . that is harmless to the hair . . . but an efficient and beautiful disguise that will strip years away from your appearance.

It is a hair rinse . . . a harmless, true-color powder . . . which when dissolved in warm water . . . forms a natural coloring in any of 14 shades to match the natural hair of virtually any woman on earth.

WILL BRING A REMARKABLE LUSTRE

Such evenness and lustrous color . . . so natural and "your own" . . . will be transferred to your locks with its use . . . that no one need be the wiser that you adopted a beauty trick . . . which the not-so-young-as-you-think glamour gals have used for years.

The fact that you can use this rinse in the privacy of your own bathroom . . . makes the secret your very, very own . . . not to be shared with anyone . . . unless you do so of your own choosing. If only as a hair color highlight, this rinse will bring a remarkable lustre and fragrance to your head.

It is a rinse you use after a shampoo . . . and which is easily washed out with the next one. There are four packets in one envelope . . . sufficient for four applications . . . and the envelope costs only 50 cents. If your job demands a youthful appearance . . . you owe it to yourself, your face and your appearance . . . to beat nature at her own game . . . and preserve the natural color of hair you grew into adult womanhood with.

The varying shades include light, medium and dark brown, light and dark auburn, henna, light, medium and golden blonde, camomile (for a true reddish glint), lemon, steel and black. A famous hair specialty house created this rinse.

POUR RINSE OVER THE HAIR

Even if your hair is unstreaked or faded with grey . . . this rinse will bring out the true and natural lustre of your locks. Blondes will find a remarkable lightening preservative in this rinse to keep their "goldyllocks" radiantly sunny. And, for a uniformity of all-over-the-head grey . . . steel is a splendid intensifier.

You simply pour the rinse over the hair from a bowl . . . covering all parts of the hair. Repeat the operation several times until most of the color is absorbed and allow the rinse to remain on the hair. Do NOT use lemon or vinegar in the rinse water.

For the name of this hair rinse, phone the Beauty Dept., L1Berty 4000, except the week-end, or write me, care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Correct Thing

By ELINOR AMES

DON'T SPOIL IT!—When your husband, fiance or son comes home on leave don't spoil his time by counting the days, feeling sorry for yourself, telling him how lonely you are while he is away, etc.

Fashion

FOR THAT FASHION-DE-CREED bare look for the warm weather, here is a new cutaway bolero . . . showing the low bertha-collared neckline of this New York designed ensemble in shocking silk shantung . . . The dress . . . backless to wear without the jacket for cocktails and dinner . . . must always be worn with the jacket for street wear. You'll be seeing loads of these "shoulder-nude" outfits this summer.—R. M.

NEW YORK, April 10—Carmen Miranda is daffy about Ary Barosa, composer of "Brazil"—and vice versa. Friends think they'll marry... Simone Simon has returned her engagement ring to Robert Jordan, to prove that she intends to make the parting permanent... Heavyweight Lou Nova will be a papa soon for the third time... A former big-time politico is "in the middle" in the Louise Stanley-Cha-lie Munn divorce case... Capt. Burgess Meredith still carries Paulette Goddard's letters

THE MAIN STEM is agog over Al Lasky—Sophie Tucker's ex—making good on his own after all these years. Universal Pictures is paying him a fortune for a new advertising idea—comic strips featuring the adventures of the stars in their various films... The Eddie Connes (she was Jane Weeks, the beauty) are divorcing... A comic, whose salary is in the four-figure-a-week class, has been losing so heavily on the ponies that he's had to resort to borrowing money from shady characters... Maj. Dan Topping wants to broadcast that the rumors of a rift between himself and Sonja Henie aren't true at all.

HOLLYWOOD GUESSED that Lana Turner and Steve Crane would split the night she left him in a huff at Bob Dalton's steakery... Carl Laemmle, Jr., who has been hospitalized, may get a medical discharge from the Army... Rutgers University will soon announce a new scientific experiment which may revolutionize dairy agriculture. A hormone-fed cow, which never had a calf, has been producing milk... Helen Mueller, the pretty model who not so long ago was heralded as the fiancée of Mickey Rooney, eloped with Ensign Bill Geyer in New Jersey not long ago... Mrs. Dick Smart has filed a counter-suit to her singing spouse's divorce action. It'll make snappy reading... Lillian Gish and David Selznick are cooking up a deal. They've been coast-to-coast telephoning about the Sarah Bernhardt film... Lou Walters, who has incorporated the name "Latin Quarter" in most of the key states, legally stopped Frank Barbaro, the Detroit night club king, from calling his new theater-restaurant there by that name.

THE ESTRANGED John

Ringling Norths—who've been seen together so much of late—have been discussing settlement, not reconciliation... The Broadway gamblers lost a fortune on the Longman decision. They expected him to get the chair... Capt. Joan Daley is carrying a terrific torch for Josie Johnson Faber, his ex-fiancee... The lyricists are busy toiling on extra choruses for Gertrude Niesen's "I Want to Get Married" in "Follow the Girl."

Star Shine By Sidney Skolsky

HOLLYWOOD, April 10—Jean Arthur and Lee Bowman have just finished playing a scene for "The Impatient Years," and being a curious person, I want to know what "the impatient years" are.

It is then I see Virginia Van Upp, the writer of the screenplay—she also did the excellent "Cover Girl"—on the set talking to Director Irving Cummings. Now if anyone can give me the lowdown it is Van Upp, and so I ask her the question. The line, "the impatient years," is from a long poem by Kipling. "The poem is 'The Old Men,' and the Judge in the picture quotes it to Jean Arthur and Lee Bowman when they are before him trying to get a divorce."

Then Miss Van Upp read the lines exactly: "For this work, and to this end we labor, that we outline the impatient years..."

Jean Arthur

Still curious, I asked Miss Van Upp how she came to use this Kipling quotation. Did she go hunting for it to find something to fit her scenario. "No," replied Miss Van Upp "that quotation was an old friend. I had no idea I was going to use it until I reached the place for the Judge's comment in the scenario. Then it came back to me."

"You see," went on Miss Van Upp, "when I was a youngster, I started to feel sorry for my mother because I thought she was past the romantic age. I told her so. She smiled and said that she was really sorry for a calm harbor where she was no longer troubled by a sea of emotions, that she had passed those impatient years. Then she read the poem to me."

FRED MACMURRAY is a very quiet fellow on a set. In fact, if it wasn't for the make-up he was wearing you'd think MacMurray was a visitor on "Practically Yours." Instead of the leading man. I mentioned this fact to Claudette Colbert who is the leading lady of the picture, and who has been in other pictures with MacMurray.

"I'll tell you of a little incident about MacMurray that proves that," said Miss Colbert. She told of Fred fishing alone in the trout stream in the Sierra foothills near his ranch. Working his way up stream, he met another lone fisherman. The ensuing conversation went like this: "Lo," said the stranger. "Lo," replied Fred. "Catchin' any?" asked the stranger. "A few," said Fred. "Say, young feller, haven't I seen you somewhere before?" asked the stranger. "I don't know," said Fred, who is a man of few words. "You come from Bakersfield?" was the next question. "No, I've only been through the town en route."

"Hum," said the stranger. "Well, I certainly figured I'd see you somewhere before. Guess not, though."

And, they went their respective ways. "That's the kind of a fellow MacMurray is," said Miss Colbert.

"Maybe," I replied, "he's ashamed to admit that he's an actor."

George Holland

Boston After Dark

FROM THE "INSIDE": An unusual story filters through the high walls of a Boston prison, a story of the wrath of many of the inmates, over a petty piece of "chiseling"...

At the same time, the chiseling by an inmate assigned to the prison hospital might be interpreted also as the tale of a man desperately trying to help his wife... This second interpretation, however, would stand up better if conditions under which most any able-bodied woman these days can earn a living for herself were different "on the outside."

THE PRISONER who has evoked the anger of his fellow-prisoners is a doctor... He was sentenced for illegal surgery, after migrating to Massachusetts from the South... This case history remains sketchy, because the fellow was noncooperative from the start when authorities tried to get the story of his past... They are still trying to get some background facts from the inmate, as a matter of fact... Nevertheless, he was assigned to the prison hospital, an important post.

OTHER INMATES are mindful of the days which they might have to spend in the prison hospital, and when their comfort would be, more or less, dependent on the doctor-prisoner of the story... They have not protested when the man goes on forays at night through the wings, and begs or "borrows" small articles... So the doctor is seldom refused his demand for a piece of candy, cigarettes, razor blades, or toothpaste... He has never bought anything through the prison commissary, other inmates say.

REGULARLY, AT INTERVALS of two weeks, a woman—who says she is the doctor's wife—makes a visit to the jail house... Prisoners say that she is given a large bag of "loot" by her husband at each appearance.

FROM A READER who signs himself "A Former Convict, Now a Soldier, and Thanks to C. A. L.," comes a letter concerning the so-called Cleary Act... It was this act, which Benny Drohan lobbied so successfully, that permits prisoners of good record to join the armed forces, under parole auspices... The letter reads: "You and the public are under the impression that the men released from the State prison, Norfolk and Concord under the Cleary Act thank Rep. David

M. Cleary of Charlestown and Reuben L. Lurie... No, no, a thousand times no...

"WE MEN RELEASED to the Army, Merchant Marine or defense work give our thanks to a man who is still behind the bars of State prison... All of us know that he is the fellow who had the foresight to draft the legislation and had a Medford citizen, who is the father of a Marine captain, take the legislation to Rep. Cleary to file and sponsor... Up to the time that I left that 'hell hole' the author of that legislation, who initials are C. A. L., has done more than his share to help his country... He has been a human guinea pig for the Harvard Medical authorities, given his money for war bonds and for the Red Cross, and six pints of blood to the Red Cross blood bank... He surely is one fellow that should be paroled... Everything that I have said here can be checked for the facts by Mr. Brock and the warden of State prison."

ANONYMOUS letters usually get the waste-basket treatment, but this is the Easter season... If "A former convict now a soldier, etc.," had signed his name, it would have been treated confidentially... And anonymous letters about a prisoner always leave the suspicion that the man whose cause is being pleaded wrote the letter himself.

7 Auto Deaths Lift State Toll to 136

As the result of seven deaths last week, the state's auto fatality toll to date stood at 136, as compared with 89 for the corresponding period a year ago, Motor Vehicle Registrar Frank A. Goodwin reported today.

Two four-year-old children were among three pedestrians killed last week, and one was the victim of a hit-and-run driver.

It may be a danger sign WHEN YOU CAN'T GET YOUR CHILD TO EAT!

Does your youngster just "pick" at his food? Does he push it away before it's half eaten? Then be on your guard, Mother! Loss of appetite, when accompanied by paleness, weakness and lack of pep, is often a sign that the blood is low in iron! In such cases, a good iron tonic like Pepto-Mangan can be very helpful. Pepto-Mangan replenishes whatever iron the blood may be lacking—helps to give it that rich redness so essential for strength and pep, hearty appetite and rosy cheeks. Many doctors recommend Pepto-Mangan for run-down and growing children whose blood is deficient in iron. Ask for—

War Gives New Fire to A. A. U. Title Ring Bouts

By JACK CONWAY

ONE OF THE most remarkable features about the national amateur boxing championships that opened in the Garden this afternoon to run through tomorrow night is the comeback that the simon-pure sport has made under war conditions.

The big entry list of more than 50 boxers indicates that the various A. A. U. associations have adjusted themselves to war conditions. Service men, defense workers and boxers in the armed forces are the teams that are competing.

As was the case during the World War I, boxing is booming once more as the nations engage in a global conflict. Now that the Army and Navy are well organized more attention is being devoted to boxing in the early days of the war. At that time it was so important to get men fit for combat as quickly as possible that it was impossible to take much time out for boxing.

This writer attended several boxing tournaments at Army camps and Navy bases, and found that the mitt wielders had very little time in which to train. They went in and did the best they could under limited training conditions.

Most service men are now given time in which to train when they are approaching major matches. The boxers who took part in the Allied boxing tournament in Africa were sent to a special training camp where they were able to prepare for their bouts under proper conditions.

The Garden bouts will attract an enthusiastic crowd which has learned down through the years that the amateurs make up in action what they may lack in boxing polish.

Tam Sheehan, Gene Driscoll, Tom Kanaly and the other A. A. U. officials will have a big task in handling the large number of boxers who compete, but they will do so with the least amount of confusion as they have done in former years. Boston has had much experience in staging major amateur boxing shows and it will do its usual first class job this year.

Two Pro Shows

THERE WILL also be two professional shows this week, Joe

Silick will clash with Sam Daniels at a Callahan A. C. offering at Mechanics Building on Thursday night, while Izzy Janazzolo will toss leather at Larry Arzalone at a Goodwin A. C. show at the Garden on Friday night.

Jimmy Mulligan of Lowell will also appear on the Callahan Club's card. He is listed to collide with Dick Fuller of Bridgeport. Another tussle will find Howard Thompson of Saugus, one of the best of the younger crop of heavyweights, in action against George Fuller, brother of Dick.

Janazzolo will be striving for a bout with Ralph Zanelli when he opposes Anzalone. When Janazzolo and Zanelli met before, the latter received a questionable decision. It was the opinion of most of the fans who witnessed the contest that Janazzolo won.

Big Jamaica Handle

THE $2,601,836 handle at the opening of Jamaica on Saturday indicates that the northern tracks will have record-breaking seasons. It is a certainty that the Narragansett Park meeting that ushers in the New England season on Wednesday will also set new highs.

Racing Secretary Ty Shea expects to have 1200 horses in the barns by the time the Narragansett meeting opens. It is hoped the horsemen will have their thoroughbreds ready to enter the small fields at Jamaica today indicate that many of the horses that are in the North are not yet ready to try for purses.

Boston Park League Berths Still Open

"After dinner" baseball fans can look forward to one of the best seasons ever with the Boston Park League scheduled to get going within a month.

Although there are more than enough applicants on file at the minute, any team desiring a Park League berth should drop a line to Bob Cusick at the Recreation Office, Pinesbank, Jamaica Plain and the application will be taken up at a meeting tomorrow night.

Wanted to Join Tribe

WILMINGTON, Del., April 10—Chet Ross, the slugging right-handed outfielder, will report to Bob Coleman when the Braves arrive home on Wednesday. Ross is working in a Buffalo defense plant. It was understood that he would stay out of baseball this season. But Ross contacted Bob Quinn, who in turn got in touch with Bob Coleman.

During a long distance telephone call this morning, Ross agreed to the terms offered by Coleman and said he'd be on hand for the Red Sox city series.

ROSS CAN SOLVE PROBLEM

The Braves are badly in need of a right hand hitting outfielder, and if Ross is able to get back into his 1940 stride, he will solve Coleman's major problem.

With Al Javery and Jack Kraus pitching, the Braves and the Phillies staged a preview of the opening National League game in Boston at the Wilmington Park here today.

Manager Bob Coleman was to give Charlie Workman, who has been on the injured list with a sacroiliac strain, another day's rest, using Roland Gladu, the hard-hitting French-Canadian, in right field.

The Braves should have "stood" in Choate School. Uncoordinated weather has kept them idle since Thursday, when they broke camp.

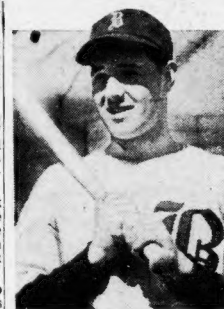

Coleman hopes that he and his warriors are out of the rainy belt. The players were in exceptional condition after three weeks at Choate, but it doesn't require much idleness for them to get soft, especially the pitchers. They worked out for about 15 minutes yesterday in the Ruppert Stadium but did very little running. Jim Tobin and George Woodend pitched to the hitters and then Manager Coleman called off the workout.

ANXIOUS TO PLAY

Al Javery said he wanted to go about six innings this afternoon but because he developed a sore spot in his arm a day or two before the squad left Wallingford, Coleman may short-change him one or two innings. After Javery had his fill, Hal Schacker was to take over, and Big Ben Cardoni had the finish-up assignment.

Although there is still a sore area in his back, Charlie Workman was anxious to get into action today. Workman takes his baseball seriously and he doesn't relish laying out of any contests. However, it would be foolhardy on the part of Bob Coleman to use the veteran today, for if Workman's sacroiliac popped out again it might be some time before he would be available.

The Braves, with the exception of Coleman, will have the first look at Gene Patton, the schoolboy phenom from Coatesville, Pa., this afternoon. Patton didn't dress yesterday. According to Coleman and Jack Ogden, who discovered Patton, the Coatesville kid has a future in baseball.

Strike Threatens Jamaica Program

NEW YORK, April 10 (AP) — The racing center, still a bit awed by the fact 45,796 of 'em wagered $2,601,836 on Jamaica's opening seven-race Saturday, had something new to chatter about today. Bobby Permane is coming to town.

The blonde kid from Camden, N. J., ex-vaudeville performer and radio crooner, rode 50 winners in 30 days at Florida's Tropical Park, bringing in five winners each of the last three days for a record.

Permane was booked for four mounts today. Miss Puritan in the first, Head Smart in the fourth, Leaving in the sixth, and Blockader in the seventh. He gets his apprentice weight allowance in each.

There's a chance the Jamaica program may be curtailed somewhat, unless the grooms and owners get together on a financial question. The grooms want $5 for leading a horse to the paddock, and the owners don't want to pay it. The Metropolitan Jockey Club paid the requested fee Saturday, getting the program under way some 30 minutes late, but track officials said the argument was now up to the grooms and owners.

Ticket purchasers were advised to retain their stubs for a refund in event a program is cancelled due to the controversy.

"Man About Boston," George Clarke's daily column of Boston's night life, is a regular feature of the Daily Record.

Canucks Game Away From World's Title

CHICAGO, April 10 (INS)—The Montreal Canadiens advanced to within one game of the world's hockey championship when they handed the Chicago Blackhawks their third straight defeat, 3 to 2, in the Stanley Cup finals.

Two lightning goals in the last period told the story of the Canadiens, victory which was played before a crowd of 17,694 in the Chicago Stadium.

National Title Fights On at Garden

One of the greatest array of amateur boxers to ever come to Boston for a national championship was prepared to furnish blistering action in the title skirmishes at the Garden. The first bout went off at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It will be close to midnight before the last of the trial contests is staged.

The semi-finals and finals will be held tomorrow night.

From East, West and South more than 80 amateur boxers have come to Boston in quest of championships. New England's sturdy light man team is expected to make a good showing against the invading mitt wielders.

The weighing opened at the Garden this morning.

There was a final brushing up on rules and on the other conditions of the tournament at a meeting at the Hotel Manger that was attended by the managers and coaches of the various teams.

Gene Driscoll explained the rules of the tournament. Driscoll has the respect of the visiting A. A. U. officials and they quickly accepted his suggestions.

Cronin's Sox Understudy Idol of Former Pupils

By JOE CASHMAN

NEW YORK, April 10—Bill Burwell, new Red Sox third-base coach, is a veritable Sphinx.

He never speaks unless spoken to and then says not a word more than is necessary to avoid the charge of being discourteous.

It long puzzled us how a fellow so quiet came to be named manager of the Hose farm at Louisville, a job he performed so well that he's now with the varsity and slated, 'tis reported, to become boss in the event Joe Cronin is called to arms.

In the talkfest after the Dodgers had nipped the Sox, 3-2, we learned:

Burwell doesn't have to blow his own horn to attract attention. He has a small army of former pupils blowing it for him.

STAUICH ADMIRERS

We don't know of anybody, save possibly Bob Coleman, who has more staunch admirers among his former minor league pupils than Burwell.

We recall Charlie "Broadway" Wagner, now in the Navy, returning to the Sox from Louisville. He had failed to make the grade, you remember, when he was first brought in from Minneapolis.

"Boys, wait until you see me pitch now," he chirped on his return. "I found out from that Burwell that I didn't know the first thing about twirling. But I know now. Thanks to Bill, I'll stick this time."

And he did. "Tex" Hughson is another who credits Burwell for all his pitching success. So does almost everybody else who ever twirled for him.

But Burwell, an old pitcher himself, has other than pitchers boasting him. We sat on the bench at the Gilman School game in Baltimore as the Sox worked out last week. Framingham's Stan Benjamin, now captain of the Orioles, was running a few laps around the dirt track. He saw us and stopped. "Wiseest move the Sox ever made when they added Burwell to their strategy board," said Stan, who played third base and in the outfield for the Colonels last year.

"You can go to h—l and back again without finding a smarter baseball man or finer guy. He's the tops."

NEVER ISSUES ORDERS

"Frankly, I don't know how he does it. He never issues an order, just makes suggestions. He practically apologizes before he advises or instructs a player."

"You'd think the players would pay no attention to a manager like that and that there'd be no discipline. Instead his word is law and nobody ever thinks of stepping out of line."

"And the way he improves players is unbelievable. I've never met anybody like him."

Neither have we. If he's once said anything to a Sox player either on the field in practice or from the coaching line in games or in leisure moments around the hotels, we haven't heard him. Yet he's always been that way and has had most remarkable results.

Bob Quinn, for whom he once pitched, sizes him up perfectly. "There's no keener master-mind in baseball than Burwell," says the Braves' president. "But he's so quiet, very few realize his ability. You must be associated on the same club with him to appreciate his talents. I was surprised when he got the Louisville job. He certainly never applied for it."

We'd say he doesn't have to apply for anything. His Chowder and Marching Club does it for him.

Battery Stars Back at BC High

By MIKE GILLOOLY

Battery for B. C. High—Shellenback and Fitzgibbons!

It's a familiar cry in schoolboy baseball circles and if Coach Clem McCann's hopes ring true, this combination of Frankie and Johnnie will once again be the sweet-heart team in interscholastic ranks. The Eaglets, semi-finalists in the Eastern State championships last year, will be relying on the clever right arm of the son of the Red Sox coach to pave their way to the title play again this season. And with Fitzgibbons behind the plate, studying the batters of the opposition the McCann crew has a virtual head start on the rest of the field.

B. C. High isn't fooling this spring. It has already carded a comparative marathon schedule of 17 games, and is still trying to book four more for a complete slate of 21. The Eaglets will play all of the Boston schools in the McKenney conference with the exception of Charlestown High and outside contests with Medford, one of the best of the best of the Suburban schools, Wellesley, an entry in the State title play last year, and Milton, expected to be a top-notch this year.

Anybody else want a game? Coach McCann says he'd just as soon play as practice so speak up now with a challenge.

Maybe, with a break in luck, you wouldn't have to face the control pitches of Shellenback. Maybe you'd draw that kid sophomore, Bernie Mulligan, who's just too good to keep out of any high school line-up. Or maybe you'd have Bob Darcy, another control artist. Or maybe it would be better to let the Eaglets just practice.

They're the aces of the battery deck. Fitzgibbons has a frosh replacement in Bob Dulski, a scholastic wizard, who'll be getting seasoning this year.

Coach McCann lost four of his regulars from last year's clever nine. His first and second basemen graduated. His big left-handed hitting center fielder, Jim Linehan, transferred to Cathedral High. His classy left fielder, Bill Malloy, left school for the Seminary. But he still has his 3-4-5 hitters in the lineup to give the team plenty of punch.

The outfield chaps up well at this early date. Jack Casey, a standout sticker in the South Shore CYO league, looks like a certainty. Dick Shellenback, younger brother of Frank, has a mere 188 pounds to lay behind his sticking—and a great arm. Frank Trotman, a sub last year, has been going great. And Mulligan is still around.

Latin Draft Rule Kayos Nats' Hopes

WASHINGTON, April 10 (AP)—Pennant hopes of the Senators, bright and rosy just 24 hours ago, took a downward tumble today as Uncle Sam's draft men took a cut at the contingent of Latin-Americans the club had assembled for the 1944 campaign.

Clark Griffith, the "Old Fox," thought he had pulled a fast one on the other major league outfits when he signed up some 18 players from Cuba, Puerto Rico, Venezuela and Mexico. Most of them showed promise.

But the Selective Service system moved in with a ruling that the Latins must either return home or register for the draft in this country by June 12—and take their chances of going into the armed forces.

Should any of the Latins decide to return home—and some of them unquestionably will do just that—they won't be able to re-enter the U. S. without special permission. Thirteen of the South and Central American players are of draft age.

Third Baseman Luis Suarez and Outfielder Roberto Ortiz, a pair of Cubans Manager Ossie Bluege had counted on as regulars, may decide to go home in view of the draft edict. Alex Carrasquel, Venezuelan, who pitches with considerable success when he feels in the mood, probably will stick around. He's in his thirties.

Pennant talk along Pennsylvania ave, revived after a 10-year lapse, will become a mere whisper if the "Latinos" leave.

STABBED IN THE BACK BY ARTHRITIS

NOW is the time of the year when food arthritis is on the loose, stabbing victims with its deadly dagger of pain. If you are one of those unfortunate people here is important information for you to know. Many people suffering from nagging arthritis pain in back, knees, shoulders and hands, never suspect that these pains may be caused by excessive acid within the body. As a dietary aid to the faster neutralization of these acids, which in turn may tend to bring sweeter pain relief to this extent, Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets were devised by a well-known nutritionist. Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets contain four essential vitamins, five minerals of nutritional value which may prove to be helpful to many arthritis sufferers. Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets are free from all harmful chemical drugs. They positively do not contain injurious ingredients of any kind. TRIAL IS FREE! Just return the bottle and get your money back. Vig-Ore Sodium Tablets cost only a few cents a day to use. 500 Tablet Bottle—$1.95. (500 Tablet Economy Size, $3.25). Mail orders need postage. They are sold only at

RUPTURED?

New Patented DOBBS TRUSS IS SANITARY (Can Be Washed) STRAPLESS BELTLESS BULBLESS
It holds the muscles together with a soft concave pad. Keep Rupture tight by closed at all times while working, lifting, walking or swimming. Light weight. Fits body in but two places.
CAN'T NOT SLIP. Reason should teach you not to place a belt or strap in opening of rupture, which keeps it open and spread apart.
